

DANB's Disciplinary Policy & Procedures

I. DISCIPLINARY POLICY

DANB certificants, holders of a DANB certificate of knowledge-based competence, DANB exam applicants and DANB exam candidates (when used collectively, "DANB Individuals") may be subject to disciplinary review for matters stemming from irregular behavior; fraudulent credentials or eligibility documents; and legal, regulatory and credentialing actions as described below. Other individuals who misuse DANB marks, compromise the security of DANB exams or assist others in any behavior that warrants review under this policy may also be subject to legal action by DANB.

A. Irregular Behavior

1. Irregular Behavior in Connection with a DANB Exam

The behavior of all candidates taking an exam will be monitored and may be recorded. Improper behavior is not acceptable before, during or after an exam appointment. Test center personnel or online test proctors will notify DANB of any candidate who appears to give or receive assistance, or otherwise engages in dishonest, disruptive or other irregular behavior associated with the exam.

Any DANB Individual who

- a. engages in, or assists another individual to engage in, cheating or other dishonest or irregular behavior;
- b. copies test questions or answers, or permits another to copy test questions or answers;
- c. removes or attempts to remove exam-related materials from the test center;
- d. possesses, reproduces, distributes, displays or otherwise misuses a test question or any part of a test question from an exam;
- e. engages in discussion of specific exam content;
- f. uses unauthorized materials or prohibited testing aids during the exam;
- g. causes disruptions or disturbances of any kind;
- h. assists another individual to do any of the above; or
- i. otherwise violates the security or composure of an exam

may be subject to disciplinary action, including but not limited to rescission of exam results and temporary or permanent denial or revocation of eligibility, certification or recertification. Any individual who engages in such improper behavior also may be subject to legal action.

2. Failure to Meet Obligations to DANB at Any Time

Any DANB Individual who

- a. if subject to DANB's Code of Professional Conduct and/or the OSAP-DANB-DALE Foundation Code of Professional Conduct (the "Code of Conduct"), violates a provision of the Code of Conduct;
- b. obtains, attempts to obtain, or assists another person to obtain or attempt to obtain, eligibility, admission to a DANB exam, certification, recertification, or a certificate of knowledge-based competence, or attempts to circumvent any DANB requirement, procedure, or fee, by deceptive means, including but not limited to submitting or assisting another person to submit to DANB any document which is falsified or fraudulent or which contains a material misstatement of fact or omits to state a material fact;
- c. commits any act that infringes on DANB's or the DALE Foundation's intellectual property rights, including but not limited to trademark and copyright violations;
- d. fails to accurately answer a background information question on a DANB exam application, certification renewal or reinstatement form, emeritus application or other DANB form;
- e. answers "yes" to a background information question on a DANB exam application, renewal notice, or other DANB form and fails to resolve the matter to the satisfaction of DANB;
- f. if an exam applicant, fails to provide proof of meeting exam eligibility requirements within sixty (60) days of notification of this requirement by DANB;
- g. fails to replace a check that was returned to DANB or the DALE Foundation for nonsufficient funds within ninety (90) days of notification by DANB;
- h. reverses a credit card charge, stops payment on a check or otherwise revokes payment for services provided by DANB or the DALE Foundation after such services have been rendered;
- i. fails to cooperate reasonably with a DANB disciplinary investigation; or
- j. otherwise fails to meet an obligation to DANB

may be subject to disciplinary action, including but not limited to rescission of exam results or denial or revocation of eligibility, certification or recertification. Any individual who engages in such improper behavior also may be subject to legal action.

B. Fraudulent DANB Credentials or Other Fraudulent Eligibility Documents

Any DANB Individual or any other individual who

1. manufactures, modifies, reproduces, distributes or uses a fraudulent or otherwise unauthorized DANB certificate, DANB designation, or any other document or designation conferred by DANB by virtue of a contract with a state or other third-party agency or organization;
2. otherwise falsely claims to be certified by DANB or to possess credentials or certificates conferred by DANB; or
3. manufactures, modifies, or reproduces a fraudulent document in support of eligibility for a DANB exam, certification or recertification (e.g., proof of education; continuing education; employment; CPR, BLS, or ACLS certificate); or
4. assists another individual to do any of the above

may be subject to disciplinary action, including but not limited to denial or revocation of eligibility, certification or recertification. Any individual who engages in such irregular behavior also may be subject to legal action.

C. Legal, Regulatory or Credentialing Action

Any DANB Individual may be subject to disciplinary action if DANB determines that such individual is the subject of any of the following:

1. Adjudication by a court that the individual is mentally incompetent;
2. Adjudication by a court or governmental regulatory body that the individual has violated a federal or state law, rule or regulation;
3. Conviction of or pleading no contest to a felony;
4. Loss, suspension or voluntary surrender of the individual's state dental assisting or other professional registration, license, or other state-recognized credential or authorization to practice as an employee of the federal government or in a state or jurisdiction not requiring registration, licensure, or other recognized dental assisting or other professional employment credential;
5. Documented evidence of professional misconduct, including but not limited to unauthorized disclosure of patient information; improper alteration of a patient record; inappropriate or unlawful use of drugs or alcohol; assault, battery, or abuse of a patient; sexual contact with a patient; gross or repeated malpractice or negligence; improper professional financial dealings; or engaging in practice involving contact with a patient or the public while knowingly suffering from a contagious or infectious disease involving serious risk to the public health;
6. Documented evidence of professional incompetence, unethical conduct, or moral turpitude, related to the practice of dental assisting; or
7. Failure to report to DANB in a timely manner adverse legal, regulatory or credentialing action(s)

The sanctions that DANB may impose against any DANB Individual who is the subject of the foregoing include but are not limited to denial or revocation of eligibility, certification or recertification.

II. DANB'S DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

Disciplinary review of DANB Individuals or other individuals who have violated or are accused of violating a provision of DANB's Disciplinary Policy (Section I) shall be conducted according to the procedures described below.

A. Notification and Investigation of Possible Disciplinary Matter

If it comes to the attention of DANB that a DANB Individual or other individual subject to review under this policy (the "Respondent") may have engaged in any of the behaviors described in Section I of this policy, DANB shall make a reasonable effort to determine the facts of the matter. If DANB determines that no action should be taken, the matter shall be closed. If DANB determines that there is a reasonable basis to believe that the allegations are true and that the matter should be considered further, DANB shall take such actions as are described below in Sections B through G.

B. Notice of Investigation

DANB shall issue a written Notice of Investigation to the Respondent. The Notice shall include the following information:

1. a statement of the allegations and the reasons for the proposed disciplinary action;
2. a statement that the Respondent's behavior leading to the proposed disciplinary action will be reviewed to determine if grounds for disciplinary action exist and what sanctions, if any, should be imposed;
3. a statement that the Respondent must submit in writing, by traceable delivery method (e.g., registered mail, FedEx, UPS, USPS, fax, email), any information that the Respondent wishes to have considered during the review, so that it is received by DANB's Director of Professional Conduct within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the Notice of Investigation;
4. a statement that, should the Respondent not submit information for consideration in a timely manner, (i) the matter will be reviewed, a determination will be made as to whether the facts warrant the imposition of disciplinary action and, if so, what disciplinary action should be taken, and (ii) the decision shall constitute the final action by DANB on the matter; and
5. for cases reviewed by the Review Panel, a statement notifying that Respondent of their right to request a telephonic appearance before the Review Panel.

A copy of this DANB's Disciplinary Policy & Procedures document shall be enclosed along with the Notice.

C. Disciplinary Review Process and Action Based on Fraudulent Credentials or Fraudulent Eligibility Documents

1. Based on the available facts, including a statement from the Respondent, if provided, DANB's Review Panel staff shall determine what, if any, disciplinary action is warranted, relying on disciplinary guidelines established by DANB's Board of Directors.
2. If DANB's Review Panel staff determines that no action should be taken, the matter shall be closed.
3. If DANB's Review Panel staff determines that disciplinary action should be taken, a written notice shall be issued to the Respondent describing (a) the basis for disciplinary review, (b) the applicable section of DANB's Disciplinary Policy & Procedures, (c) the disciplinary action taken in the matter, and (d) the right to appeal reportable disciplinary actions. The notice also shall inform the Respondent that he or she may accept the disciplinary action or, within 30 days, may submit a written request for review in accordance with Section II. D. of this policy.
4. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Review Panel staff may, at its discretion, refer the matter to the Review Panel for a decision in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section II. D. of this policy.
5. If the Respondent does not submit a timely request for further review, the decision of the Review Panel staff will be the final decision of DANB on the matter.

D. Disciplinary Review Process and Action Based on Irregular Behavior; Failure to Meet Obligations to DANB; or Legal, Regulatory and Credentialing Actions

1. The Notice of Investigation, the Respondent's response to the Notice and/or any other information to be submitted to the Review Panel shall constitute the Review Record. A copy of the Review Record shall be forwarded to the Respondent and the Review Panel at least ten (10) calendar days before the meeting of the Review Panel.
2. If the Respondent requests a telephonic appearance before the Review Panel, the Respondent shall be given thirty (30) days written notice of the place, date and time of the interview, unless such notice is waived in writing by the Respondent. The notice shall advise the Respondent of the following:

- a. The Respondent has the right to be present by telephone (or by video conference, Internet conference or other remote conferencing technology, provided that the total expense for such participation is borne by the Respondent) and to be represented by legal counsel;
 - b. The Respondent has the right to present written and oral testimony;
 - c. Any written testimony must be received by DANB no later than ten (10) calendar days before the scheduled date of the interview;
 - d. All expenses incurred by the Respondent and their legal counsel in connection with the telephonic appearance shall be borne by the Respondent.
3. If the Respondent requests a telephonic appearance before the Review Panel, the proceedings shall be subject to the following rules:
 - a. The Respondent shall be given the opportunity to make a statement summarizing their position. At the discretion of the Review Panel, the Respondent's legal counsel may make an opening or closing statement.
 - b. At the conclusion of the Respondent's statement, members of the Review Panel and DANB's legal counsel may ask the Respondent to respond to questions.
 - c. The Review Panel shall not be bound by technical rules of evidence usually employed in legal proceedings, but may consider any evidence it deems appropriate.
 4. If the Respondent requests a telephonic appearance and, without good cause, fails to appear or fails to advise DANB in writing by traceable delivery method (e.g., registered mail, FedEx, UPS, USPS, fax, email) at least seven (7) calendar days before the scheduled date of the telephonic appearance before the Review Panel that the Respondent will not appear, the Review Panel may, at its discretion, notify the Respondent that no further opportunity for an appearance shall be provided and that the Review Panel will make its determination based upon the Respondent's Review Record.
 5. Following the telephonic appearance or, if none was requested, at a meeting or telephone conference call convened in a timely manner by the Chair of the Review Panel, the Review Panel shall review the Review Record and the Respondent's statement(s) during the telephonic appearance, if any. Based upon this review, and after due and thorough deliberation and upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Review Panel, the Review Panel shall determine whether grounds for disciplinary action exist and, if so, what disciplinary action should be taken.

E. Possible Disciplinary Actions

One or more of the following disciplinary actions may be taken:

1. Issue a nonreportable Advisory Letter;
2. Issue a reportable Letter of Censure;
3. Order the Respondent to retake an exam at a time and place and in a format to be determined by the Review Panel;
4. Rescind or refuse to release the exam results of the Respondent;
5. Require the Respondent to wait a specified period of time before reapplying to take any DANB exam;
6. Temporarily or permanently revoke the Respondent's eligibility to sit for future exams;
7. Deny or revoke the Respondent's eligibility, certification or recertification;
8. Require the Respondent to engage in remedial education and/or training, or to perform community service;
9. Require the Respondent, if certified, to participate in a mandatory audit of continuing education for a period of time;
10. Place the Respondent on conditional status and issue a conditional exam result, certification and/or certificate until conditions imposed by DANB are met; conditional certification, certificates, and exam results may be automatically revoked or rescinded if the conditions imposed by DANB are not fulfilled and reported to DANB in a timely fashion;
11. Publish findings and sanctions in DANB's Certified Press or on DANB's website or on any website of the OSAP-DANB-DALE Foundation Collaboration;
12. Recommend that DANB take legal action against the Respondent and/or recommend that DANB report the Respondent to a state regulatory board;
13. Assess a disciplinary fine; or
14. Take a combination of any of the above actions or such other action that may be deemed appropriate in the circumstances.

F. Notification of Review Panel's Determination

The Respondent shall receive a Notice of Decision containing the Review Panel's action, and the reasons therefor, within thirty (30) calendar days after the Review Panel reaches its decision.

If the Review Panel determines that disciplinary action should be taken, the Notice shall advise the Respondent of the right to request a Discretionary Appeal on the matter by submitting a written Request for Discretionary Appeal by traceable delivery method (e.g., registered mail, FedEx, UPS, USPS, fax, email) to DANB's Director of Professional Conduct within thirty (30) days of the date of the Notice.

If a timely Request for Discretionary Appeal is not received, the Review Panel's determination will be deemed final action by DANB.

G. Appeals

Disciplinary actions are subject to appeal pursuant to Section III of this DANB's Disciplinary Policy & Procedures.

III. DANB's DISCRETIONARY APPEAL PROCESS FOR DISCIPLINARY DECISIONS

A. Request for a Discretionary Appeal

A Respondent who has received Notice of Decision of Adverse Action by the Review Panel may appeal to the Appeal Committee of DANB's Board of Directors by submitting a written request for appeal ("Request for Discretionary Appeal") to DANB. To be valid, the Request for Discretionary Appeal must be received within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the Notice of Decision and must state with specificity the grounds on which the individual is requesting the appeal. The decision to grant review of the Discretionary Appeal is at the sole discretion of the Chair of the Board of Directors.

If a Request for Discretionary Appeal is not received within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the Notice of Decision, the decision of the Review Panel shall constitute the final decision of DANB on the matter and shall not be subject to appeal absent extraordinary circumstances, as determined solely by DANB.

B. Acceptable Grounds for Discretionary Appeal

The following will be the only grounds considered for granting a Discretionary Appeal:

1. The Respondent provides evidence that the Review Panel committed a procedural error that materially affected the outcome of the disciplinary review process.
2. The Respondent provides evidence that the sanctions imposed by the Review Panel are arbitrary and capricious.

C. Discretionary Appeal Procedures

1. Granting or Denying a Discretionary Appeal Request

- a. A timely Request for Discretionary Appeal shall be reviewed initially by the Chair of DANB's Board of Directors. If the Chair, in their discretion, determines there are acceptable grounds for a Discretionary Appeal, the Discretionary Appeal will be heard by the Appeal Committee at a meeting at the next regularly scheduled meeting of DANB's Board of Directors occurring at least thirty (30) calendar days after DANB's receipt of the Request for Discretionary Appeal.

2. Appeal Process

- a. The Appeal Committee shall consider the Review Record, the Notice of Decision and the Respondent's written Request for Discretionary Appeal. The Appeal Committee also shall receive and review a statement from the Chair of the Review Panel that took the adverse disciplinary action, which will include the grounds for disciplinary action, the sanction(s) imposed and the rationale for these sanctions. The foregoing shall constitute the Appeal Record. The Appeal Committee shall render its decision solely on the Appeal Record.
- b. There shall be no hearing, whether telephonic or otherwise, before the Appeal Committee.

3. Notification of Appeal Committee's Decision

The Respondent shall be notified in writing of the Appeal Committee's decision, including the reasons therefor, within thirty (30) calendar days after the Appeal Committee reaches its decision.

A decision by the Appeal Committee to ratify, reverse or modify an adverse decision shall constitute the FINAL decision of DANB on the matter and shall not be subject to further appeal.

IV. ACTION ON FINAL DECISIONS

A. Public Notice of Final Decisions

After a final adverse disciplinary decision has been reached, DANB will publish the findings and disciplinary action taken in DANB's Certified Press and/or on DANB's website or on any website of the OSAP-DANB-DALE Foundation Collaboration. In addition, DANB may notify interested parties of the adverse disciplinary decision and the underlying facts thereof as deemed appropriate by DANB. Such notification may be given to dental regulatory boards, dental associations, dental assisting associations, the Respondent's employer, the Respondent's educational institution, the federal, state or local government and other interested parties, as determined by DANB.

B. Application for Restoration of Non-Conditional Status, Eligibility, Certification or Recertification Following Disciplinary Action

1. A Respondent whose status is conditional, or whose eligibility, certification or recertification has been non-permanently denied or revoked by DANB based on a legal, regulatory or credentialing action as described in Section I.C of this policy, may reapply to DANB when the circumstances underlying DANB's decision has been remedied. Unless the Review Panel grants an exception, if the decision was based on conviction of or pleading no contest to a felony, the individual may not apply for exam or certification until all sentences have been served and unless all judgments have been satisfied. If the decision was based on revocation of licensure or authorization to practice, the individual may not apply for examination or certification until the circumstances underlying the licensure or authorization revocation has been remedied to DANB's satisfaction and the license or authorization is eligible for restoration, unless this requirement is waived by the Review Panel.
2. A Respondent whose eligibility, certification or recertification has been denied or revoked by DANB for a specified time period for reasons other than legal, regulatory or credentialing action as described in Section I.C of this policy, may reapply to DANB following expiration of such time period. At the time of reapplication, the Respondent will be required to demonstrate that the terms of all sanctions imposed by DANB have been fulfilled, including but not limited to payment of any fines and completion of any remedial education course imposed or required by the Review Panel.
3. Applications following denial or revocation of eligibility, certification or recertification shall be considered and acted upon at the sole discretion of DANB.

C. Responsibility for Notification of Address Change

DANB Individuals are solely responsible for providing timely notification to DANB of changes of address. If a Respondent does not receive notice(s) from DANB related to disciplinary review or action due to their failure to timely notify DANB of a change of address, that lack of notification may not be considered as the basis for an appeal or reconsideration of any decision in the matter.

V. SUBMISSIONS TO DANB

Whenever there is a requirement for a written notice, request or other writing to be submitted to DANB, such writing shall be addressed to the following:

Director of Professional Conduct
Dental Assisting National Board, Inc.
444 N. Michigan Ave., Suite 900
Chicago, IL 60611
professionalconduct@danb.org

All such written notices must be sent by a traceable delivery method (e.g., registered mail, FedEx, UPS, USPS, fax, email). Failure of delivery of written communications caused by improper addressing or delivery method may not be considered as the basis for appeal or reconsideration of any decision or the extension of any time provided for Respondent's reply to a notice from DANB in connection with any disciplinary proceeding.

The procedures set forth above for the review and appeal of disciplinary matters may be subject to an expedited schedule when deemed necessary by DANB.
